130,312,998	I like MGA how it is now for the most part	Sunday, Jul 12th 11:20AM
130,180,073	Where the ball crosses the hazard line like on number 6 or 13 where to take a drop.	Friday, Jul 10th 1:29PM
129,937,394	None.	Monday, Jul 6th 7:08PM
129,914,767	N/A	Monday, Jul 6th 12:27PM
129,863,415	i am happy	Sunday, Jul 5th 5:09PM
129,641,557	Later tee times on Sunday would be nice even if it was just 1:30.	Wednesday, Jul 1st 6:32PM
129,628,026	As mentioned in previous comment, I would like to have a local rule of relief from divots in your own fairway. Also the tees should be adjusted. I do realize we have no control on where the tees are placed	Wednesday, Jul 1st 2:08PM
129,605,117	I think the folks running the MGA are doing a great job overall. If nothing changes, I will still play just as often. But the handicap situation is easily corrected by making all scores count and then the captain posting the scores. Actually, a properly executed all points game would have the same effect. So maybe I am not that opposed to team points.	Wednesday, Jul 1st 9:13AM
129,592,663	if u are in an unfixed divot u get a drop	Wednesday, Jul 1st 8:18AM
129,586,141	Hole-in-one club	Wednesday, Jul 1st 7:05AM
129,518,529	I believe the points game approach would let every player feel that he is contributing to a team effort. Some captains will tell a player to pickup even though he would have a chance to bogey and finish the hole. That said if the player is not playing up to speed he should pickup but in the points game he would be encouraged to score and would feel that his efforts are appreciated.	Tuesday, Jun 30th 2:35PM
129,484,261	I think we should have four "tournaments" a year (maybe coincide with the majors) no teams only individual scores and crown winners based on handicap or strokes on handicap holes	Tuesday, Jun 30th 11:12AM
129,466,396	I would like to commend the ones that take their time and make the effort to orchestrate the events of the MGA. It is a thankless job and an effort that is much appreciated by me! Thanks!	Tuesday, Jun 30th 7:57AM
129,461,373	only thing for me is to make "C"&"D" players feel their score can help the team	Tuesday, Jun 30th 6:52AM
129,459,547	Any ideas or changes that are implemented should be on a trial basis. I recommend 3-6 months to get a feel for whether the changes are for the better.	Tuesday, Jun 30th 8:30AM
129,456,549	I would like to know how many members we have that are 60 and over. Blue tee players seem to be a minority	Tuesday, Jun 30th 7:17AM
129,454,156	It is fine as is	Tuesday, Jun 30th 7:44AM
129,450,343	Jody you are doing a great job in a tough one to have. Can't make everyone happy.	Tuesday, Jun 30th 7:08AM
129,445,605	I thoroughly enjoy the MGA games, mostly for the company and the golf. I don't get too excited about how we manage it, just as long as it is reasonably fair. All in all, I think the MGA guys do a great job of managing the game and the folks involved. Thanks	Tuesday, Jun 30th 6:12AM

129,445,061	The only fair way for everyone is to select the captains then do a blind draw by handicap. The same folks win over and over too often. It's not worth playing if you don't feel you ever have a chance to win. All I want is a fighting chance to win. Now I don't think I have the that chance with the present selection process.	Tuesday, Jun 30th 5:22AM
129,437,657	MGA committee members should not have to pay MGA dues. An MGA branded golf bag for each committee member would be a nice gesture as well.	Tuesday, Jun 30th 2:10AM
129,434,805	At previous club we did a super skin. Randomly pick a hole each match and make that the super skin hole. You would pay an extra 5 bucks and if someone who entered that day won the skin they would get the pot. If not it would carry over to the next match until someone won.	Tuesday, Jun 30th 1:35AM
129,429,337	It would be quite helpful if ALL teams turned their scorecards, and money, in as soon as they finished play, instead of going to the parking lot to unload first. At the July meeting, we can discuss various different playing formats, and vote on them.	Monday, Jun 29th 9:57PM
129,427,045	Good luck with this Jody!	Monday, Jun 29th 8:20PM
129,424,818	Without mentioning names, if one sees a rule infraction, notify Jody to address the correct procedure and let Jody display it along with the rounds results. For example swapping a ball to just use for putting or moving it a coin length to ease the break.	Monday, Jun 29th 7:39PM
129,423,872	Age 70 and above moving to forward tees not addressed, will bring it up at meeting.	Monday, Jun 29th 6:25PM
129,423,272	Even though you play from the white tees Jody, you're doing a great job!	Monday, Jun 29th 6:58PM
129,423,153	Anything can be improved but then so can it be screwed up. Please consider any changes to be a 'trial' to see how they work out. My thanks to the officers of the MGA for their efforts and to being receptive to the voices of the members.	Monday, Jun 29th 6:24PM
129,422,908	There are a lot of great ideas on here, and I don't really have any to add. The only pitfall I potentially see is trying to do too much at one time. If the multiple formats and special games are instituted, a calendar should be well-kept so that all are on the same page. Thanks for all that you do to make the game what it is.	Monday, Jun 29th 6:11PM
129,421,944	PACE OF PLAY. I understand if we are backed up but if a team falls out of position they're are affecting everybody else behind them and thus affecting the game. I won't go into names but there are just some people who don't have a clue just wondering around the fairway, walking back to take a drop when there score probably won't count on that hole. Pace of play is my biggest concern of all.	Monday, Jun 29th 6:08PM
129,420,795	More going away trips!! Letting the golf course let us know well in advance on there tourneys	Monday, Jun 29th 6:09PM
